Student Professional Networking Session!

at Maryland Water Monitoring Council's Conference
December 2, 2016

Join us for a 1-hour session where junior high, high school, and undergraduate students can interact and talk with professionals in the fields of aquatic biology, freshwater ecology, marine biology, watershed science, integrated management, science communication, and more!

Are you interested in participating in this free session?

Contact Dot Lundberg for more information
dotlundberg@gmail.com

Conference Information

Where: The Maritime Institute, North Linthicum, Maryland
When: Friday, December 2, 2016
8:00 AM - 4:30 PM
Conference Student Registration Fee: $35
Dan Boward, dan.boward@maryland.gov
www.marylandwatermonitoring.org

Student Poster Award

The Fifth MWMC Student Poster Award will be offered this year. Open to junior high, high school, and college undergraduate students, the Award offers $200 for first place and $100 for second place.